

Family Constellations The Soul's Purpose

A life changing 3 day workshop with Yishai Gaster
18th – 20th September 2009
North London, UK

In this time of economic crisis & with the progressively rising tide of greater social awareness we are all beginning to awaken into a time of change. More of us are beginning to realize that we are free to live our lives in whichever way we choose

Each of us has a unique reason or a purpose for being here

This workshop is for those who wish to take further steps towards realizing their Soul's Purpose

Are you at a crossroads trying to decide which way to turn?
Do you feel the past is weighing you down & making it more difficult for you to move forward in your life?
Having difficulty getting what you need from your close relationships or your career?

Family constellations is a powerful way of working with the hidden dynamics in family systems so as to support us in finding deep & lasting resolutions to our everyday problems & issues. It helps to untangle difficulties that restrict us in our movement towards greater well being & supports us in our journey towards discovering our soul's purpose.

Cost of workshop: £250

For participants who pay a month earlier we can offer an earlybird cost of £210.00, cheques must be received by August 14th, 2009

Some other concessions are available to those who need it.

Please apply in advance for considerations.

Everyone will have a chance to work with personal issues.
